Remember, there is no great meal without a great wine hence we have suggested some pairings, better still, experiment. Light wines light meals, robust wines with heavy meals. As poetic as it might be, wine is like art, therefore venture out and find wines that you like.

Mazzei Siepi, IGT, Toscana, Italy

Sangiovese

Since more than six hundred years, the Mazzei family produces unique wines with spirit and passion renewed from generation to generation. At Fonterutoli, as well as at Belguardo and Zisola, resides the same philosophy that aims to promote local vine varieties in respect of diversity and nature.

Philip Mazzei born near Florence in 1730. Mazzei was a man of wide interests and talents, and his influence was felt both in America and across Europe. While in London working as a merchant, Mazzei met several important figureheads from Virginia, including Thomas Adams who inspired Mazzei to create a viticulture program for Virginia. While there he collaborated with several political figures of the time, such as Washington, Franklin, Jefferson and Adams, with whom he shared his modern and progressive ideas. Philip inspired Jefferson with the idea that "All men are by nature equally free and independent".

Chateau De Beaucastel, Châteauneuf-du-Pape, Southern Rhône, France

Grenache

Château de Beaucastel is a magical place, surrounded by hills planted with vines, hundred-year-old olive trees and truffle oaks. Here nature is blooming, liberated and at ease. Ancient vines with knotted roots are nurtured in the traditional "gobelet" style in the soil typical of the region, laden with large round pebbles (galets). When the Mistral blows - the legendary wind from the Alps - it whistles down the Rhône Valley cooling the vines and revealing aromas of Garrigue. It has the Southern accent of those who live here at one with the Mediterranean climate. It's on these ancestral soils, supporting the 13 grape varieties of Châteauneuf du Pape, that each new vintage of Beaucastel is born.

Pauillac De Latour, Medoc, Bordeaux, France

Merlot

Chateau Latour is one of the oldest continuous Bordeaux wine-producing properties in the Pauillac appellation with a history dating all the way back to the 14th century! The estate takes its name from the original Saint-Lambert tower placed close to the chateau that was created in the second half of the 14th century.

Pauillac, in Bordeaux's Left Bank Médoc region, boasts well-draining gravel soils, which in turn translates to higher quality wines; and those from Pauillac age extremely well.

Luce, Tenuta Luce, Toscana, Italy

Merlot

The wines of TenutaLuce were born in the early Nineties of this unique terroir and philosophy from the meeting of two great men of wine, Vittorio Frescobaldi and Robert Mondavi. Having chosen Montalcino, they joined their knowledge together to pursue the potential of this terroir, so well-suited for winemaking, in a highly distinctive way. The bright light due to its particular exposure, the crisp breezes, and the variety of soils and altitudes make of TenutaLuce a unique place where the balance between all these elements is safeguarded with deep respect. A respect that continues all the way to the winery, where each step is carried out with the utmost care for the enhancement of the precious harmony achieved in the vineyard.

Amarone Della Valpolicella Classico, Veneto, Italy

Corvina

Amaronedella Valpolicella Classico wines are red Amarone wines from the traditional Classico zone of Valpolicella in Veneto (the original area of Amarone production, which was later expanded). Made in the Amaronedella Valpolicella style, with mainly Corvina grapes and Rondinella and Molinara grapes for blending, the grapes are dried in order to concentrate their sugars and flavor, resulting in a richly layered, sumptuous wine.

Situated in the northwest of the city of Verona, Amaronedella Valpolicella Classico is considered the top producer of Amarone. These wines are the finest examples of quality Amarone, with decadent flavors of dark fruits, coffee, and chocolate; and are considered among the top wines of Italy.

Chateau La Tour Carnet, Haut Medoc AOC, Bordeaux, France

Merlot

The history of La Tour Carnet merges with the history of France. Bearing the name of the squire who infallibly helped his Lord to resist French royalty at the end of the Hundred Years War, Château La Tour Carnet played a major role in the revolution of the Médoc vineyards and the quality of its wine, rewarded by the entry in the classification of Grands Crus Classés of 1855. The diversity of its terroir and the constant search for perfection make this Haut-Médoc an exceptional wine.

Chateau Olivier, Pessac-Leognan, Graves, Bordeaux, France

Cabernet Sauvignon

Chateau Olivier really is the story of the Bethmann Family, Owner since 1886 but the estate as we know it today find its roots in the late 90's when the Château escaped from the tenant farming of a renowned Bordeaux Negotiant. Located on the same alluvial terraces as Smith Haut Lafitte and Haut Bailly, the vineyard covers an area of 60ha (all classified) but with a potential of 180ha classified: all in a single block (the property sizes 220 ha in total). Thus, on such a wide surface, the diversity of the soils is amazing and brings all the complexity to the wine. That makes the uniqueness of Cholivier. Indeed, more than 11 types of soils have been identified by the team, giving an infinite number of combination soil-varietal. Besides they have the choice of the color. Lastly, in 2002, they've found out 7.5ha of compact gravels at the extreme West of the Château (named Bel Air) where they've planted Cabernets Sauvignon. This exceptionnal parcel today accounts for 25% of the blend in the Grand Vin, despite its young age.

Muller Catoir Gimmeldinger, Pfalz, Germany

CRiesling

The vineyards of Müller-Catoir are located exclusively on the Mittelhaardt within the boundaries of Haardt, Gimmeldingen and Mußbach, districts of Neustadt and der Weinstrasse.

70 % of the vineyard area is situated on the hillside, 30 % in the valley. The individual site names are: Bürgergarten, Herrenletten, Herzog, Mandelring, Mandelgarten, Schlössel and Vogelsang. All the estate's single sites are classified by the VDP. The wines grow on various soils: from colored sandstone and heavy loam to loess and shell limestone and up to loamy gravel.

The well-balanced and delicately structured Gimmeldingen Riesling makes a floral and juicy impression, with hints of white peach and jasmine. Very fragrant and enticing with lemon-zest, licorice and herbal notes. This dry Pfalz riesling is a cool customer, in spite of the depth and juiciness. Long, straight finish with lots of freshness. From organically grown grapes.
