WESTERN MAINS

🍷 ▲ Braised Chicken With Morels & Pilaf 🍷🍄

This wonderful get-together dish, as remembered is believed to be connected to King Henri IV of France, who wished for his people to never be without “poule au pot” or “chicken in a pot” after enjoying Bresse chicken during his stay in Bresse at the end of the 16th century. Our version is inspired from the very emotion of getting people together, hence we cook all handpicked ingredients together. We use shallots, fresh herbs, wine-soaked morel mushrooms, and serve it with herb butter pilaf

INDIAN MAINS

Awadhi Biryani

Awadhi Biryani is a gift from the Nawabs of Awadh and dates back to the 18th Century. Influenced by Persian, Mughal, and local culinary traditions, the royal cooks created a unique Biryani characterised by the use of saffron, cardamom, and rosewater. Its preparation involves layering basmati rice, marinated meat, and spices in a sealed vessel, allowing the flavours to infuse together. Today, it is celebrated globally for its rich heritage and distinct flavour

■ Dal Jamavar

Slow cooked black dal has always been associated with celebrations and rich food traditions. We have preserved and nurtured across two decades a prized recipe at Jamavar that elevates the humble black dal to a dish fit for a royal feast. Hence, we take pride in naming it after the Iconic Kitchen where it originated. Our version begins with handpicking the finest ingredients and using our own house made garam masala that makes it unique and a signature
Serving size: 350 gms | Calorific value: 626.26 Kcal

■ Dal Tadka

What is now a comfort meal for every home originated in the 16th Century with Arab traders introducing spices like cumin and turmeric to India. The use of spices to temper and elevate the flavours of food was a technique that elevated the humble boiled lentils to the "Dal Tadka". Over the years, home cooks and chefs have adapted local ingredients and spices to curate several versions of this versatile dish. A dish that still reminds any Indian of his mother's warm care and a nourishing meal

DESSERTS

Kesar Pista Kulfi

Kulfi originated in the Mughal Empire in the 16th Century, inspired by Persian and Arabic ice cream. Adapted with local ingredients like milk, cream, and spices, it is celebrated for its dense and creamier texture. An interesting legend about this dessert is that elephants carried ice from the Himalayas and only about one tenth of what started from the hills reached Delhi, the Mughal Capital. This ice was used to freeze an amazing dessert that was so exclusive and rare that only royals and few nobles had access to. The Humble Kulfi is known for unique flavours of cardamom and saffron, we serve our version with candied rose petals, basil seeds, fresh fruits, rose and khus syrups
Serving size: 150 gms | Calorific value: 324.50 Kcal

Tiramisu

Tiramisu means “pick me up” or “cheer me up” in Italian, likely referring to the energising effect from coffee. Tiramisu gained popularity in Italy during the 1970s and has spread to the world ever since. While the exact origins of tiramisu are debated, its flavour, textures, and stimulating qualities have made it an internationally renowned dessert

Our signature Tiramisu uses Dark Rum, made of savoiardi dipped in coffee, layered with a whipped mixture of egg yolks, sugar, and mascarpone, and topped with cocoa powder
